

50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE STRUGGLE FOR PUERTO RICAN STUDIES AT CUNY

Film Screening and Panel - Making the Impossible Possible THURSDAY | MARCH 25TH | 6PM ONLINE

RSVP: <https://bit.ly/2Zsi8Yx>

MAKING THE IMPOSSIBLE POSSIBLE tells the story of the student led struggle to win Puerto Rican Studies at Brooklyn College, CUNY in the late 1960's. Puerto Rican, African American and other progressive students forged a powerful alliance and together changed the face of higher education with the founding of one of the first Puerto Rican Studies departments in the nation.

Making the Impossible Possible is a production of the Alliance for Puerto Rican Education and Empowerment and was directed by Pam Sporn and Tami Gold and co-produced by Gisley Colón López. It is available from Third World Newsreel, www.twn.org.
