

Sainsbury Visiting Artist Stephen Maing

Tues. March 25

Screening: Union

A film by Stephen Maing and Brett Story

Up against one of the most powerful companies on the planet, a group of Amazon workers embark on an unprecedented campaign to unionize their warehouse in Staten Island, NY. Winner of the US Documentary Special Jury Award for the Arts of Change, Sundance Film Festival 2024.

Followed by Q&A with Stephen Maing
Moderated by Prof. Ricardo Miranda, Film and Media Studies

 For Hunter Community
<https://fm-stephen-maing-rsvp-hunter.eventbrite.com>

 For non-Hunter/Public
<https://fm-stephen-maing-rsvp-public.eventbrite.com>

6:30-9:00PM

Lang Auditorium (424HN)

Public: Entrance at 69th Street with ID
between Lexington & Park Ave

Wed. March 26

Artist Talk by Stephen Maing

"Breaking and Remaking the Character-Driven Documentary"

Empathy for individual protagonists, and their story arcs, are the lifeblood of many documentary films. What are some drawbacks of character-driven storytelling, and how can we expand documentary vocabulary and form to convey complex stories of power and collectivity? Stephen Maing will draw on his own films and experiences to explore these timely and critical questions.

Reception

 For Hunter Community Only
<https://fm-artist-talk-stephen-maing.eventbrite.com>

2:30-3:45PM

TV Studio (436HN)

3:45-4:30PM
433B HN

Stephen Maing is an Emmy-award winning filmmaker and cinematographer based in New York. Read more

