THE VIEW ABROAD:
Hunter College in South Africa

April 13th @ 6:30pm : Lang Recital Hall, 4th Fl.
Admission is Free and Open to All

For more information contact:
Prof. Larry Shore, Project Director  212.772.4951
Prof. Tami Gold, Documentary Filmmaker  212.772.4953

Taxi Town
By: Carlos Arboleda, Chris Dapkins, Rashid Mamun, Alexia Smit
This documentary is a dynamic portrait of one of the first female taxi drivers in Cape Town, named Latifa. Latifa takes the viewer for a taxi ride throughout the city while you learn about her four children and Muslim faith.

Afrikaner Identity
By: Sunet Buys, Waseem Ghattas, Meghan O'Malley, Steve Thompson
What does it mean to have an Afrikaans identity in post Apartheid South Africa? This documentary looks at this issue through the eyes of Afrikaner youth. Through music and words by young Afrikaans artists you will get a peek at this sub-culture.

Tomorrow is Today
By: Rick Borutta, Clea Mallinson, Roshni Naidoo, Delissa-Faye Rosa
This gripping documentary explores the current immigration crisis in South Africa. Thousands of African refugees, fleeing war and economic hardships, enter South Africa in search of better lives. This documentary profiles several people who find themselves in this situation.

Search and Find
By: Liezl Collins, Danielle Kummer, Rachel Meskin, Bill Murtha
Since the end of Apartheid people of mixed race who had been classified as coloured are now able to search for their particular ethnic identities. This film explores Liezl Collins’ search for her Black African roots.